

Subject:	Ultrasound Diagnostic Procedures
Policy Number:	PO-RE-092v2
Effective Date:	11/1/2020	Last Approval Date:	6/30/2026

I. Policy Description

Healthfirst will no longer provide reimbursement for CPT 76856 (Ultrasound, pelvic [non-obstetric], real time with image documentation; complete) or CPT 76857 (Ultrasound, pelvic [non-obstetric], real time with image documentation; limited or follow-up) when billed with CPT 76830 (Transvaginal ultrasound) unless extenuating circumstances are present to validate the necessity of both studies. This policy is implemented due to the redundancy of services provided by both procedures, as they evaluate the patient for the same conditions during the same session.

A pelvic ultrasound is defined as a noninvasive diagnostic exam that produces images that are used to assess organs and structures within the female pelvis. A pelvic ultrasound allows quick visualization of the female pelvic organs and structures, including the uterus, cervix, vagina, Fallopian tubes, and ovaries.

A transvaginal ultrasound is defined as a type of pelvic ultrasound used by doctors to examine female reproductive organs. This includes the uterus, Fallopian tubes, ovaries, cervix, and vagina. "Transvaginal" means "through the vagina." This is an internal examination.

Reimbursement Guidelines

1. Healthfirst will not reimburse CPT 76856 or CPT 76857 when billed with CPT 76830, unless there are extenuating circumstances that validate the necessity of both studies.

2. Extenuating circumstances may include, but are not limited to:
 - a. Suspected pathology or medical conditions that require additional evaluation beyond what can be adequately assessed by a single procedure.
 - b. Unsuccessful completion of either the pelvic ultrasound or the transvaginal ultrasound due to technical limitations or patient factors.
3. Providers must clearly document the extenuating circumstances in the medical record when submitting a claim for reimbursement of both CPT 76857 and CPT 76830.

Adjudication and Appeal Process

1. Reimbursement for Ultrasound Diagnostic Procedures services will be determined based on the provider's scope of services and the reimbursement rates outlined in the provider's contract with Healthfirst.
2. Claims submitted for reimbursement of both procedures without sufficient supporting documentation of extenuating circumstances will be denied.
3. Providers must submit claims for reimbursement of pelvic ultrasound (CPT 76857) or transvaginal ultrasound (CPT 76830) separately.
4. Claims submitted for reimbursement of both CPT 76857 and CPT 76830 must include supporting documentation that justifies the medical necessity of both procedures.
5. This policy applies only to the line(s) of business (LOB) identified at the beginning of the policy and does not apply to other LOBs. For policies applicable to other lines of business, please visit www.hfproviders.org
